Communications
Packet phone, by R. Dettmer 58
Phoning and flying, by R. McKinlay 85
Alcatel extends Black Sea network 98
Video-by-phone: hype meets reality 99
Plugging into data 100
ITU agrees compatibility plan for text phones 100
Deep space communications, by M. Williamson 119
ERO to hold workshop in Birmingham 146
Europe's largest communications network formed 148
Marconi powers ahead in China 198
Wiring-up the home, by R. Dettmer 215
Satellite constellations in the ascendant, by M. Williamson 209

Computing and control
Software saboteurs, by J. Hruska 41
Smart software, smart business 51
A Titanic engineering project 98
Internet protocols for ARM 799
UWWeb expands into UK 99
Server withstands sailing rigours 99
Web Director has better fault tolerance 99
All together now, by E. Bartle 223
Less is more, by G. Hodgkinson 226
Controlling with CANopen, by M. Farsi and K. Ratcliff 229
Information for health 246
Machine vision reaches top gear, by C. Graves 265
Embedding Windows, by C. Watts 272
An electronic controller for adaptive suspension, by M. Kellett 275

Electronics
Inverter pumps chalk slurry 54 miles 2
Infra-red camera beats the heat 50
Cradle to the grave, by A. Finney 76
Testing times for analogue products, by K. Webb 79
DERA's high-speed breakthrough 98
Getting smarter, by R. Dettmer 123
Airline with the personal touch, by M. Tomordy 261

Energy and the environment
Aqaba connection links Egypt and Jordan 2
Rapid Tram System for Poland 3
Home station, by R. Dettmer 11
National Power invests in Zimbabwe power project 50
Financing Energy: The Challenge Ahead 50
JASON dismantled 51
Edinburgh substation transformed into 'urban sculpture' 100
Green installations, by D. Hill 134
EA Technology undertakes New Zealand network health-check 147
4·2 million could switch electricity supplier by year 2000 147
UK managers seek greener workplace 148
Environmental partnership 148
Beans means less gas 198
ABB wins London Underground contract 199
BICC Cables supplies Muck 200
A fair deal for all consumers 200
New Conservation Centre 200
A better market for electricity 245
Distributors face bleak 1999 246
Software saves trees 247
The heart of a new machine, by R. Dettmer 256

Management and education
Battle against illegal copying 2
Success rates for women scientists to be monitored 3
The death of project management, by A. Dooley 28
Managing risk, by D. Hilson 31
Project management and the Internet, by N. Wills 33
Year 2000 info packs 51
Award to fund advanced flight simulator 51
A matter of trust, by G. Carter 62
True grit, by R. Dettmer 66
Safer electrical installations, by W. Bates 131
Surveying by satellite, by J. Prain 141
EPSRC to increase training allowances 198
Building bridges to science and technology 199
Engineering IT '98 199
Engineering skills in short supply 201
The role of marketing 201
Medical engineering needs injection of funds, report claims 202
Consultants galore, by M. Perry 203
In an ideal world..., by G. Slemon 232
Internet patent status check 245
RecommIT to recycle MoD's computers 246
Peter Mandelson industry scoreboard 247
Fresh perspective on R&D for industry 247

Manufacturing and design
Good day at Black Rock, by A. Webb 17
Over cautious, over priced and over here, by M. White 127
System-level design made easy 146
A systems design breakthrough 151
Manufacturing Week 98 198
Microdrives speed up Jaffa Cake supply 199
Patent application fees abolished 202

New technology
Chips go back to the future 2
Towards the Digital Library 150
Crime-cracking fingerprint system launched in Notts 150
Siemens promises cheaper underground transmission 151
Managing Europe's crowded skies, by J. Guy 159
Digital television broadcasting: the UK start-up, by H. Peltor 165
Test and survive, by R. Dettmer 174
Engineering the Information Age, by J. Taylor 250

Politics, social impact and history
Bridging the gender gap, by K. Garrod 21
DTI sets out plans for Information Age 100
Mark 1 – the first stored program computer, by C. Burton 113
IEE plans information strategy for the Millennium 146
New awards support EPSRC's mission of public understanding 147
Whitehall commitment to Foresight 'highest ever' 148
New science body sets out agenda 151
Almost an accident, by R. Dettmer 169
2LO calling, by L. Symons 178
Staying power, by K. Garrod 184

Transport and infrastructure
Britain's airship industry takes off again 150
